3 Revenue Offices, 12 Sales-Tax Offices, and other institutions were conducted. The working of the Mysore Entertainment Tax Act of 1942 was examined in six Districts. The accounts of the several cinema theatres were obtained and audited. The Branch also conducted several surprise inspections. During the course of inspections, several irregularities such as non-booking of demands, short-levy of assessment, delay in the disposal of appeals, improper maintenance of accounts, misappropriation of public funds, non-recovery of enhanced rates on exciseable articles and short recovery of entertainment tax by the proprietors of several cinemas were noticed.

130. The inspections disclosed a number of cases of leakages and loss of revenue due to Government amounting to Rs. 32,249. The concerned Officers have been addressed to take action for effecting recoveries and for fixing responsibility for leakages or loss.

131. Among the more important matters investigated or enquired into are cases of misuse of foodgrains, misappropriation of Government money, misuse of Government materials, and of Rural Development funds and other grants.

132. The Audit Staff of the Efficiency Audit Branch also assisted the Anti-corruption Branch in several inspections and enquiries.
